MOTION FOR PROTECTIVE ORDER

Comes now Respondent, Suzanne Shell, and states as follows:

Respondent certifies that she has attempted in good faith to resolve a disputed issue with the Petitioner (Respondent's Notice and Petitioner's response attached) regarding the location of the deposition. The Petitioner has been unwilling to resolve this issue in a manner that is acceptable to the Respondent, and has, in fact, threatened the Respondent with punitive sanctions for her intent to exercise her constitutionally protected rights. The Respondent seeks the Court's protection from annoyance, embarrassment, oppression and undue burden imposed by the Petitioner.

Respondent respectfully requests the court to issue a protective order concerning the terms and conditions of the deposition pursuant to C.R.C.P. 26.2(c), designating a location where the Respondent will not be required to waive her rights against unreasonable search and seizure as a condition of attending the deposition.
